About Us...

The Children's Dyslexia Center—Central New York is the second such center to be located in New York State and serves Syracuse, Utica, Rome, and all of Central New York.

We encourage anyone who has, or knows of, a school-age child who is struggling to keep up because of poor reading and writing skills to contact the center for an application.

We also invite interested persons to contact us for information regarding future training classes for tutor/scholars.

NEW — Participants raising $200 or more will receive a free embroidered hat from the Dyslexia Center!
